Organizers: National Research University Higher School of Economics, Moscow, Carolina Population Center, University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill, USA, Research Center “Demoscope”, Moscow, Institute of Sociology Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow.

The 3^d International Russia Longitudinal Monitoring Survey of HSE User Conference will take place on May 19 and 20, 2017 at the Higher School of Economics, Moscow.

The aim of the conference is to provide a forum for the discussion of the research projects based on the Russia Longitudinal Monitoring Survey of HSE. Researchers from all disciplines (e.g. economics, demography, sociology, political sciences, public health, and psychology) who use the RLMS-HSE or the Russian part of the Cross-National Equivalent Files (CNEF) are invited to submit their papers or extended abstracts. Priority will be given to the papers that make use of the longitudinal features of the data and/or provide cross-national comparisons.

Working language: English

Please note that Longitudinal Files covering 1994-2015 are Now Available at:

<http://arc.irss.unc.edu/dvn/dv/rlms-hse>,

Submission: Researchers wishing to present their work at the conference are required to submit a complete draft paper or an extended abstract by February 15, 2017. Junior researchers should also provide their curriculum vitae.

In case of multiple authors, please indicate the corresponding author who would be presenting the paper.

Extended abstracts should be between two and three pages in length and make clear what the purposes of the proposed paper are and how the RLMS-HSE data is used.

Papers/abstracts must include:

- Title of the presentation
- Three to five key words

- Full name of contact person, title, organization affiliation, address, telephone, fax number, and email address
- Co-authors' names and affiliations

Please submit an electronic version of your paper/abstract no later than February 15, 2017 to: eblagodeteleva@hse.ru. Authors will be notified on acceptance of their papers by March 30, 2017.

Financial Support: The Higher School of Economics will provide 3 nights of lodging, lunches and dinners at the conference venue. The travel costs will not be covered.
